

Please do not take any measures to weaken the authority of Wisconsin's do not call list. Since the law has been enacted, my family and I have been able to enjoy quiet evenings at home without constant interruptions by irritating and pushy telemarketers. Before that, we had to deal with numerous calls interrupting meals, keeping my children awake and invading the privacy of my home. I hope to continue my ability to protect my family from such offenses.